MLC Drops Game to Bethany 7-4

Bethany 7, MLC 4

MANKATO, Minn. – The MLC baseball team lost 7-4 at Bethany Lutheran College Monday afternoon to drop to 4-17 overall and 4-7 in UMAC play.

The Vikings did much of the damage in the bottom of the third inning, scoring four runs on five hits, one walk and a hit batter, and sending ten men to the plate in the inning.

Zac Pudlo got the start and took the loss for the Knights, falling to 1-4 on the season. Pudlo went seven innings, allowing six earned runs on 13 hits, while also striking out six.

At the plate, Josh Janke led the Knights with a four-for-four day, while Greg Holzhueter added three hits. For the game, the Knights matched the Vikings with 14 hits, but 11 men on base over nine innings. Holzhueter, Pudlo, Tyler Morgan and Joe Janke each had one RBI for MLC.
