Baseball drops two at Buena Vista

GAME 1:

Waldorf College 4, MLC 0

FOREST CITY, Iowa – MLC got six strong innings from starter Joe Janke but were unable to get the bats going in a 4-0 loss at Waldorf College Thursday night.

Janke allowed five hits (all singles) and two walks in his six innings, but took the loss to take the loss.

The Knights had five players get one hit apiece, and stranded seven runners for the game.

GAME 2:

Waldorf College 13, MLC 2 (five innings)

FOREST CITY, Iowa – The Knights allowed eight runs in the bottom of the first inning and were never able to catch back up in a 13-2 loss in five innings to Waldorf.

Mike Haugley got the start, allowing four earned runs on three hits and two walks in less than one inning of work.

Nate Brenner drove in the Knights' two runs in the fourth inning after Andrew Schoenfeld and Stephen Apt reached base with one out in the inning.

With the losses, the Knights dropped to 0-10 on the season and hope to start the conference season on a good note on Friday, April 3, when they play host to UM-Morris in a double header. The first game is scheduled to start at 3 pm.
