Knights Freshman Quarterback Sets Single Game Touchdown Record

Knights freshman quarterback Greg Holzhueter broke two Knights records in their 47-17 win over Blackburn Saturday. Holzhueter connected for five touchdown passes, breaking Jared Oldenburg's single-game record of four touchdowns set back in 1997 against Crown College. Holzhueter also ran for a touchdown, accounting for six of the Knights seven touchdowns on the day, also a new Knights single-game record. In the first three games of his collegiate career in a run-oriented offense, Holzhueter is 19-for-39, throwing for 343 yards and seven touchdowns and one interception.
