Becker, Gurgel Named Players of the Week

ST. PAUL, Minn. – Andrew Becker and Stephen Gurgel were named UMAC Offensive and Defensive Players of the Week for their performances in the Knights' 34-20 win at Macalester on Saturday, October 24.

Becker finished the day with 206 yards, which was the fourth-highest single-game rushing total in school history, on 22 carries and two touchdowns. He also recorded two catches for 44 yards.

Gurgel had eight tackles in the game, including three tackles for loss, two sacks and two forced fumbles. He stopped the Scots on each of their first two possessions of the second half with sacks that forced fumbles that MLC recovered, with both turnovers leading to points by the offense.

The Knights will return to the field on Friday, October 30, when they face Westminster at the Metrodome. The game is scheduled to begin at 5 p.m.
